Would you like me to attend? I'm thinking you might want to keep it small. I can go either way.

The Administrator will arrive at 7:15 am and join us on the 19th floor. He'd like us to brief him informally on the following three topics for about 15 minutes apiece, discussion leaders noted here. As you have seen, he is very familiar with these issues and will engage us with questions – it will not be a one-way brief.

7:15 introductions
7:20 WOTUS: Sylvia and Amy;
7:35 Mexican Border: Alexis and Jeff, and
7:45 Hawaii Volcanoes: Elizabeth, Pete G, John Lyons, Gwen Y.
8:00 transition to next meeting (Navajo Room).

Thus, after we make informal introductions, Deborah and I will turn first to WOTUS, with Sylvia as lead and Amy in support. Plan to summarize what we consider the key issues and status to be, any upcoming major actions (e.g. Rosemont), and any noteworthy State issues.

For Mexican Border, we'll cover next steps on water infrastructure (Alexis) and other Border-wide actions of note (Jeff); and

For Hawaii Volcanoes, we can shift into the adjoining Big Pine room (19331) and have the team describe our response actions and next steps.

We need to wrap up punctually to ensure the Administrator can begin an 8 am meeting in the Navajo Room.
